

life is a frail film
on a space spun rock with core of fire we cling on felled in my sleep a visionary seer dreamed a dream of a prat fall

going so well then
borisovirus mutates
unexpected that

lockdown search me whats it all about you do the covid cokey and...

aspirational
bollocks my role model will kick your sorry arse

projectile vomit
novovirus puke for Britain, lets get brexshit done

minister of health
shows EMOTION crocodiles
really do have tears

Great Brexidiot
now about to ruin us all
in mid pandemic

all together now
married beheaded divorced life's a musical

in praise of herring
gulls heraldic mad as the sea wild wet and free

collapse of heated
clothes drier eftsoons followed by heated language

a manichean
marriage of heaven and hell which is which asks life

borisovirus
infectiously supports the home workplace bully

moderate diktats
suspend free speech because we're undermining trust

national crisis
i offer my services
to the SAS

poles clang he shouts down the day constant curse of the screaming scaffolder

convinced that I have got brain wiring issues like everybody else

brainstorming in my head it's not too hard got a very stormy head

none party state no
platform your own members that's strong leadership folks

fascist history
gagging free speech did not solve antisemitism

six foot space or six foot under flowers gone when will they ever learn

lil darlin world it's gonna be alright nature
says piss off ape man

prosper mightily
no deal brexit free trade lies

blood debt and tiers

grumpy old git?
THE END OF THE WORLD IS NIGH
means it's my good day!
